

Quercus garryana

Oregon white oak - native

Quercus robur

English Oak - non-native, can be invasive

Two Similar Oak Species

Tree form

Tree form

Acorns are 3/4 - 1 in long, have no acorn stalk,

Petiole

Acorns are 3/4-1 in long, have a long acorn-stalk, that is 1.2-2.8 in

Petiole

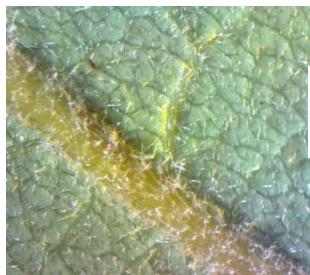

Check leaf

Leaf base tapers to the petiole

Leaf base has a earlobe like attachment at petiole

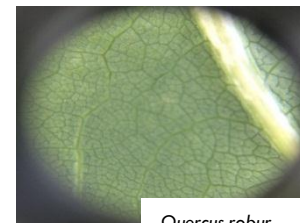

Quercus garryana
leaf underside with hairs (fely to touch)

Winter buds have reddish hairs

Quercus garryana Winter twigs, buds Main Page Previous Info

Quercus robur
Underside of leaf is smooth to the touch (no hairs)

Winter buds do not have reddish hairs

Quercus robur Winter twigs, buds Main Page Previous Info